The Government Affairs Committee was established this year to bring Washington briefings and delegates to New York providing insights on important government issues focusing on financial and economic development.

This inaugural event, as a first in a series of briefings, presents to you Anna Escobedo Cabral, US Treasurer. Join us and get to know the US Treasurer at this rare opportunity where Ms. Cabral will share insights on the US Treasury Department, current initiatives as well as a perspective on her life in government.

And as you might guess, among issues close to the FWA's heart, Ms. Cabral is a strong advocate and partner for a national strategy on financial literacy.

Anna Escobedo Cabral was confirmed by the United States Senate as the US Treasurer in November 2004. Immediately prior to taking this office, Ms. Cabral served as Director of the Smithsonian Institution's Center for Latino Initiatives, where she led a pan-institutional effort to improve Latino representation in exhibits, and public programming and related matters.

From 1999 to 2003, Ms. Cabral served as President and CEO of the Hispanic Association on Corporate Responsibility, a non-profit organization headquartered in Washington, DC, which partners with Fortune 500 companies to increase Hispanic representation in employment, procurement, philanthropy and governance.

From 1993 to 1999, Ms. Cabral served as Deputy Staff Director for the United States Senate Judiciary Committee. The Committee's jurisdiction ranges from oversight of the Department of Justice and our nation's criminal and drug enforcement laws to approving federal judicial nominations, and it includes review of immigration, antitrust, patents and trademark, and technology-related legislation.

A native of California, Ms. Cabral majored in Political Science from the University of California, Davis, and earned a Master's degree in Public Administration with an emphasis in international trade and finance from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

Special thanks to Deutsche Bank for underwriting this event.
