Working women have been struggling for decades to achieve the delicate balance between work and life. These days there seem to be endless opinions on how to do it, but no one really understands it better than the women who walk that tight-rope everyday...in heels! Join us for a luncheon and panel discussion where you will hear women leaders candidly discuss this balancing act, the challenges they have faced, what has worked and what they still struggle with day to day.

Moderator: Lucia Capozzoli

Lucia has more than 20 years public accounting and internal auditing experience in Information Systems (IS) auditing. She specializes in information systems and internal control-related audit and consulting. She currently leads D&T's control assurance practice within Enterprise Risk Services.
