

Russian “Crash-Course” - Learning a Foreign Language – It’s Not Easy, or Is It?

When	Where	Cost
Saturday May 3 10:00 am - 2:00 pm	Citi 909 Third Avenue 18 Floor Conference Room A	$30 Members $40 Non-members (Lunch will be provided)

Don’t miss this great opportunity to dive into the beautiful world of Russian language!
 You don’t need to get a Russian visa and buy a ticket to Moscow to learn Russian - join the International Conference Committee and the members of our delegation traveling to Russia in May 2008 for the exciting event – Russian “crash-course” training.
 The objective for our class is simply to learn the new vocabulary of basic words and expressions which can be helpful for Russia trip and to expand the knowledge about Russian language, culture and people.
 Best of luck in this fun and rewarding experience!

We are honored to have Marina Terentieva, a professional Russian linguist with 20+ years of experience and the founder of the Educational and Fun Center “Sunflower”, delivering this class and sharing her enthusiasm about Russian language.

Speaker Profile

Marina Terentieva is one of the founders and CEO of the Educational and Fun Center “Sunflower” which she runs with the help of the experienced pedagogic faculty of the center. The main goal for the center is to instill in kids love for learning, love for knowledge, to remind them of their roots and to promote Russian language and culture. The center programs include Business Conference Center, Russian School, Languages, Daycare, Arts, Drama, Music, Gymnastics, Piano and Accordion lessons, and Rare Foods Section. Prior to that, Marina managed her own travel agency “V&A Travel agency” in Brooklyn, NY. Her professional experience in Russia includes a number of years being a faculty member in Moscow University of Foreign Languages and teaching at Ministry of Foreign Affairs. She is a certified business teacher in USA.

Marina holds an M.A. in School Psychology and Special Education from Touro College and a B.A. in English from Moscow University of Foreign Languages (cum laude).
